SECTION 5: SUBDIVISION APPROVALS

Introduction

Subdivision Approvals (mapping actions) are those that involve the subdivision or adjustment of real property, the associated design of public improvements, and the acquisition and vacation of public rights-of-way and public easements. Some approvals are ministerial in that they are approved if they meet the regulations. Mapping actions must meet the minimum lot width, depth, street frontage and area for the underlying zone in order to be processed as ministerial action. Mapping actions that do not meet these requirements must have an approved development permit (variance or PDP) prior to submitting for the ministerial map. Others are discretionary in that they require a public hearing where the decision maker must exercise some discretion in determining whether the proposal meets the applicable regulations, standards, and guidelines.

Submittal Requirements

The Submittal Matrix and the Minimum Submittal Requirements Checklist found in this section identify the forms, drawings and documents that must be submitted for subdivision approvals. The Submittal Matrix is an easy-to-use tool to help you quickly identify the number of items you need to submit to the City. The Submittal Requirements Checklist provides a detailed description of what the content of each of the required forms and documents must be. All items noted in the checklist must be provided unless not specifically required by the Submittal Matrix or the Checklist.

Completeness Review

It is necessary to evaluate all projects being submitted to ensure that the minimum submittal requirements are provided in order for staff to review the project. This is known as the completeness review. In some cases, the completeness review may be done while you wait. Once it is determined that your submittal documents are complete and the appropriate plan check fees and deposits are paid, your application is deemed complete and your project is distributed for review.

Those projects identified within the Matrix as “submitted completeness review required” will need to go through a Submitted Completeness Review. The Submitted Completeness Review allows staff more time to review the plans/documents for the required detail, customize the number of copies needed, and set up the project for review. If the Submittal Requirements matrix indicates that a Public Notice package is required, it will not be required as part of the Submitted Completeness Review but will be collected at full submittal. After the Submitted Completeness Review, staff will notify the applicant via e-mail, FAX, or US Mail whether the application is ready to be fully submitted or whether additional information or clarification is required. This review can take up to ten (10) working days.

Consolidated Review Policy

Development projects that require multiple related approvals (Grading Permit, Public Right-of-Way Permit, Encroachment Removal and Maintenance Agreement, map, easement, etc.) shall be submitted to the Development Services Department at the same time for a consolidated review (see Project Submittal Requirements, Section 5 for the required documents for maps and easements) with the following exceptions:

1. Minor public improvements that can be done on an 11" x 17" Construction Plan, as described on page 1 of the Project Submittal Requirements, Section 2.
2. Grading and improvement plans may be submitted separately when there are no dedications related to those improvements, and when (a) not proposing to replace the curb, or (b) grading is not encroaching into the right-of-way.
3. Major projects (e.g., multi-unit subdivisions) for which a phasing plan has been approved. (See Phased Development below).

Typically, ministerial mapping actions will not be approved until all required grading and right-of-way permits have been assured by permit and bond.

Consolidated review is the review of multiple ministerial approvals in a single project, being reviewed at the same time to allow City staff to conduct a comprehensive and coordinated review. This should help reduce unnecessary review cycles, help avoid project conflicts and reduce review turnaround times. For consolidated review of discretionary actions, see Project Submittal Requirements, Section 1.

Related Approvals are those approvals for which the design of one approval directly impacts the other. For example, the grading and improvement plans showing proposed streets are related approvals as they are directly related to the location of those streets shown on the final map.

If you need to submit multiple approvals separately, a presubmittal appointment is required to discuss the best way to coordinate your project's review. Phone (619) 446-5300 to schedule a presubmittal appointment. The presubmittal meeting will help staff set your project up so that all staff reviewers are aware of the different approvals as they move through independent review cycles.

Phased Development

If you have a major project that has already been approved for a phased development, please submit a detailed phasing plan showing your proposal to submit the separate phases while still satisfying the conditions of the original Tentative Map or Development Permit. If a phasing plan has not been previously approved, please submit for a multi-discipline Preliminary Review (see Information Bulletin 513) to work out the details of your phased review prior to submission of the first unit or first phase.

Deferred Documents

There are circumstances when it may be appropriate to defer submittal of a required document. If you desire to do so, please make a pre-submittal appointment for staff to review your request and determine its impact on the review of your project. Approval by a specific review discipline and signing a deferred document agreement may be required.

Project Submittal Requirements

Subdivision Approvals

Guaranteed Second Opinion

If for any reason you disagree with the results of your completeness review, want some confirmation or voice a concern, you may request a second opinion. We guarantee a second opinion upon request.

Minimum Submittal Requirements Checklist Subdivision Approvals

This checklist must be used in conjunction with the Submittal Requirements Matrix. The Submittal Requirements Matrix establishes the documents/plans that are required and the minimum quantity that must be provided, based upon the approval you are applying for. Acceptance of projects for review by the City of San Diego depends upon the accuracy and completeness of the submitted plans and documents. This Minimum Submittal Requirements Checklist establishes the minimum details that must be included in all plans and documents required by the City. Staff will review your documents against this checklist. The design professional should use this checklist when preparing project packages for review. Plans or documents missing any of the required detail will not be deemed complete (accepted into plan check). Additional information or clarification may be requested during the review process or prior to permit issuance.

Where the word “Conditional” appears before the document and/or detail, this information will be required if the proposed project meets those conditions. Where the word “Recommended” appears before the document and/or detail, the information is provided as a suggestion for improving the review process and is not required to accept your project for review. However, these items may be a plan check correction item and required to be submitted for subsequent reviews. It is recommended that you provide the documents and information to reduce the number of review cycles. All other detail is required unless not applicable to your project.
